The faculty at Sacred Heart plays a very active role in the students' lives. Clockwise from upper left: Mr. Bill Foresta's seniors celebrate their teacher; Mrs. Jane Enos and Mr. John Enos help Sr. Mary Victor celebrate her 90th birthday; Mr. Douglas Trudeau demonstrates how to ride an ostrich during a trip to Africa; Sr. Emma Jean talks with Jim Love; six former (and one current) Sacred Heart High School principals meet together on Founder's Day.

Twelve years at Sacred Heart and it's finally over! Thanks Mom and Dad for always being there for me and helping me work at getting what I wanted, you guys are amazing. Josh – try to have fun even though it's pretty rough, I just want you to know.... Liz – you are the best friend anyone could ask for, and watch out for white vans in your future. Ryan – thanks for all the drama, it was so fun! Pat – “Aw thank you” Bri – I love ya, always have! I don't see, how you could ever be, anything but mine.

Sacred Heart for thirteen years has definitely been an experience. It's been fun. My (cliché) advice to the underclassmen: High school FLIES by. Don't sit back and watch it go. Live it up! Cug and Leigh: seniors next year! Everyone watch out! Meg: my other half I love you! Katie: best friends! MIKE JONES! Nick: Thank you for being the best friend and boyfriend anyone could ask for. I love you, Ryan: Thanks for being my best friend and the big brother I never had. Mom: Without you I wouldn't be here. I love you so much. Everyone else: PM, DB, AB, ES, AS, SN, AT, LM, KA keep in touch! And last but not least, to all the Lifers, IT'S OVER!!! We're leaving our bubble!

Wow, I can't believe it's over! These years have flown by! To all my girls (rd.es.al.nl.bc.dd.kk.cs.kw.hb.ec.br.cc.kb.ld.cf) thanks! “Side by side or miles apart dear friends are always close to the heart!” Mom and Dad thank you for believing in me and being supportive through everything! I love you both; you're the best parents! Joe you have been the greatest boyfriend I could ever ask for! You're my boyfriend and my best friend! I love ya kiddo! My dance girls: good luck, have fun, and stay close!

To the class of 2006: good luck and stay in touch!

My years at Sacred Heart have been interesting, to say the least. Mum, Dad, and Em--thanks for everything; all your support, help and advice that helped me through high school; you know I love you. Bit, Alli, Scorcho, and Michelle--thanks for always 'being there' (as sappy as that sounds, it's true), and making school, not to mention life, a heck of a lot more enjoyable (and yes, I love you guys, too.). Thanks to the rest of my family, and all the teachers who helped me get here- I couldn't have done it without you.

I love you. I appreciate all of the sacrifices you've made for me. I cannot imagine what high school could have been like without TimD, MikeD, IvoC, JonS, JohnR, KatonP, great times and hopefully more to come. Thank you, Brittany, I'm so glad I found you, you've made my life great. I love you.

In retrospect, my four years at Sacred Heart have been many things. Words such as challenging, enjoyable, thrilling, and frustrating all come to mind. Without my friends and family, I know that my journey through High School would not have been nearly as successful and worthwhile. To my mother, father, brother, and sister, I would like to express my gratitude for their continuing support and trust. To my friends, coaches, and teachers, I wish to convey how thankful I am for all the memories, good for the most part, that have been created as a result of their friendship and perserverance.

Over the past 13 years at Sacred Heart I've met different people, made new friends, and experienced many things. I probably wouldn't even be graduating if it weren't for the support from my Mom, Dad and sister. They'll never know how much I love them. I could have never kept my sanity if it wasn't for all the good times with the lifers, soccer girls and above all my favs (L.B, C.K, S.S). Also, I've gained not only education but life lessons from certain teachers, who have become some of my close friends. Above all, growing up at SH has taught me to believe in myself and my own abilities.

Mom, Dad, Mister-I love you so much, thank you for everything. Sarah, Nicole, Dill - you're always there for me, I love you! Ariel, Megan, Danielle, Aba, Juliana - thanks for everything, lots of good memories. Nordby, Quini, Erin - beautiful girls forever, good times I will miss you. Maeva - I'll visit, good luck my birthday twin. Matt and Mackenzie-my mean girls always kept me laughing. Good Luck to the Class of 2006!

The past few years have flown by, but they've been the best few of my life. Mom, thanks for everything you've done. Through all we've been through, you've always been there for me, standing by my side. Craig, high school flies by, so make the best of it you can. Good luck! To all my friends -- EC, NV, RD, JB, AG, DK, CR, KF, and many more! I don't know where I'd be without you guys. Thanks for everything

Ten years at Sacred Heart. It seems like just yesterday I was a nervous third grader climbing the steps on bus G on my way to a new school. Matty: thanks for being you. A person couldn't ask for a better friend, and you'll never realize how much you've helped me grow. Love ya to death. Kate: we had our fights, but you've always been there and for that I thank you greatly. To the rest of the class of 2006: I love you all. I hope you never stop dreaming.

Freshman Orientation

Orientation, a longstanding tradition at Sacred Heart, allows freshmen the opportunity to get to know the school with the help of seniors. This past year, incoming students were paired with a senior, providing them with a chance to learn through the voice of experience. The events culminated with an ice cream social and the annual straw tower building contest.

Activities

Senior Rafting Trip

The senior rafting trip has swiftly become an indispensable tradition at Sacred Heart. Seniors gathered together in September for the annual right of passage. Students enjoyed good weather, white water and great bonding experiences as they and a group of teachers headed off to Maine for a weekend of sun, fun and the occasional capsizing. Students declared it a rousing success.

Clockwise from upper left: Meghan Phelps and Liz Mullins shoot the rapids; seniors toast marshmallows for a late night snack; Paul Downs and Danielle D'Angelo practice their swimming skills; Chris Bopp, Jeff Balzarini, Ariel Woloschuk and Reba Kasmarek take a paddle break to stop and smile; Kalyn Harkins, Laura Spaulding and Marissa Delorey move forward along with Mr. Mark McNeil.

Activities

Homecoming

Homecoming is so much more than a series of sports events at Sacred Heart; it is a chance to show school pride, have some fun, and make a lot of positive noise. This past year was no exception, with sports teams rallying around their big games, and students sending them off with rousing cheers. Chris Bopp led cheers in the SAC, and students led the way to fun on the fields.

Halloween

There was no shortage of color and animation in the halls of Sacred Heart this past October as students and teachers decked themselves out in a fine array of costumes. Everyone, from the Crayola sophomores to Count Duchaney and the Mad Hatter, got into the spirit of things. Even The King could not resist stopping by to say hi. Elvis had definitely not left the building.

Class trips

Class trips help augment the regular school curriculum by providing students and faculty members with experiences that they simply cannot get while sitting in a classroom. This past year, students went from Boston to New York, and from Africa to Spain, taking in the sights and enjoying new experiences. Travel, both figuratively and literally, helped to broaden their horizons.

Clockwise from upper left: Kyle Morse and her mother tackle a pachyderm; John Schreiber tames an ostrich; Liz Sweeney, Jen Price, Haley Nehms, Tori Kuketz and Charlotte Tuminelli enjoy some art; members of the Heart Beat

Staff visit Columbia University; students and faculty enjoy the wilds of Africa; Patrick Prendergast, Alex Artiano, Tim Wolfe, Kim Babiez and John Michael Phillips take an art break.

Service

Giving back is an important part of the Sacred Heart experience. Throughout this past year, students worked tirelessly to help members of their own community, as well as beyond the walls of the school.

Here's to the students, staff members and faculty whose dedication to food drives, trips to the pre-primary school and fundraisers helped to make this past year one of service.

Clockwise from upper left: Members of the student council showcase a handful of the many supermarket gift cards that were donated to local food pantries thanks to funds raised by students; Joe Chapin takes to teaching, offering his insight and patience to a group of pre-primary students; Chris Bopp leads the way with another box of food, part of the Peer Ministry program's spring food drive; Intermediate School students Ryan Hagg and Willie Dinardo help load the van with food; Noelle Aubert and Marissa Delorey bring bag after bag of food to the waiting vehicles.

Snowflake Semi-Formal

Students put on the ritz for the annual Snowflake Semi-Formal in the fall of 2005. With Christmas decorations adorning the hall, students moved and grooved to the sounds of a DJ. Seniors enjoyed their final fall as Sacred Heart students, and some underclassmen had an opportunity to make a first impression.

Christmas Show

It was an afternoon (and evening) of song and dance as members of the school's choruses and Pizzazz took to the stage this past December for the annual Christmas Show. The members of Pizzazz gave the event a 50s flair with their poodle skirts and leather jackets, while the chorus serenaded us with Christmas classics. The final tableau was both spectacular and surprising.

Clockwise from upper left: Pizzazz "wows" the crowd; members of the IS chorus share the gift of their voices; Carl Olson takes on the role of leader of the pack; Mark Verellone sports a leather jacket;

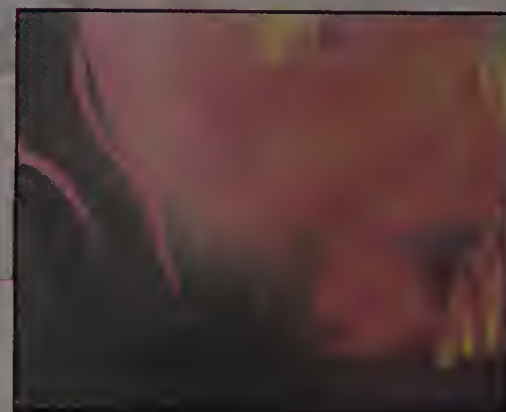

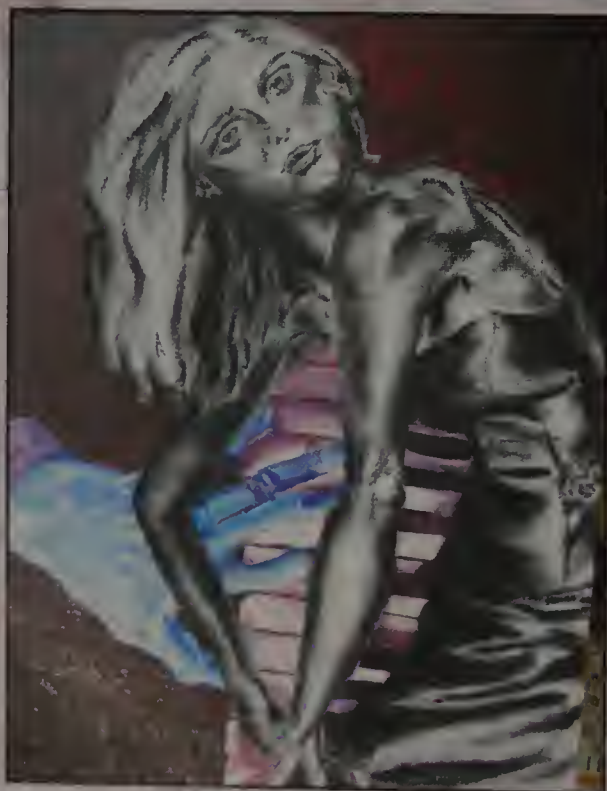

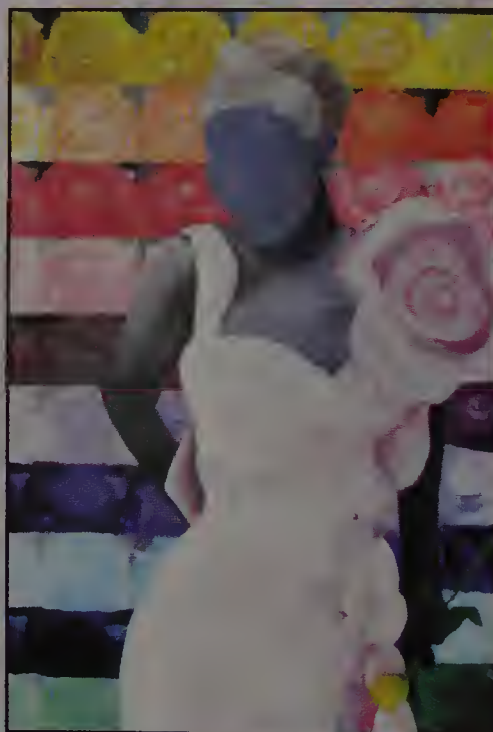

Jim Love, Ms. Meredith Costa and Shannon McNichols create a Christmas tableau; freshman chorus members Sarah Cirone, Jess Cashin and Rebecca Golden are shrouded in mood lighting.

Annual Art Show

Students, with the help of Mrs. Evelyn Dunbar, transformed the lower gymnasium into an art gallery in the Spring of 2006, showcasing the talents of Sacred Heart's up and coming artists. Students and faculty alike had an opportunity to review and vote on their favorite pieces. Unfortunately, there is only room enough to highlight a few of these stunning pieces here.

Variety Show

There was no end of talent and laughs at this past year's Variety Show. Hosted by "John Burgandy," this year's theme of "Newsies" kept the audience thrilled with great musical numbers, magic, comedy and the occasional dance number. Sacred Heart's own "boy band" brought down the house. Kudos to Mrs. Evelyn Dunbar and the students who made this past year's event more than a little memorable.

John Burgandy (John Michael Phillips) and a gorilla (Matt McDonnell) provide the audience with a touching zoological moment; Mark Bridge, Nicholas Frazier and Paul Kelly offer up their version of "Spamalot;" Steve Bentley, Katon Patel,

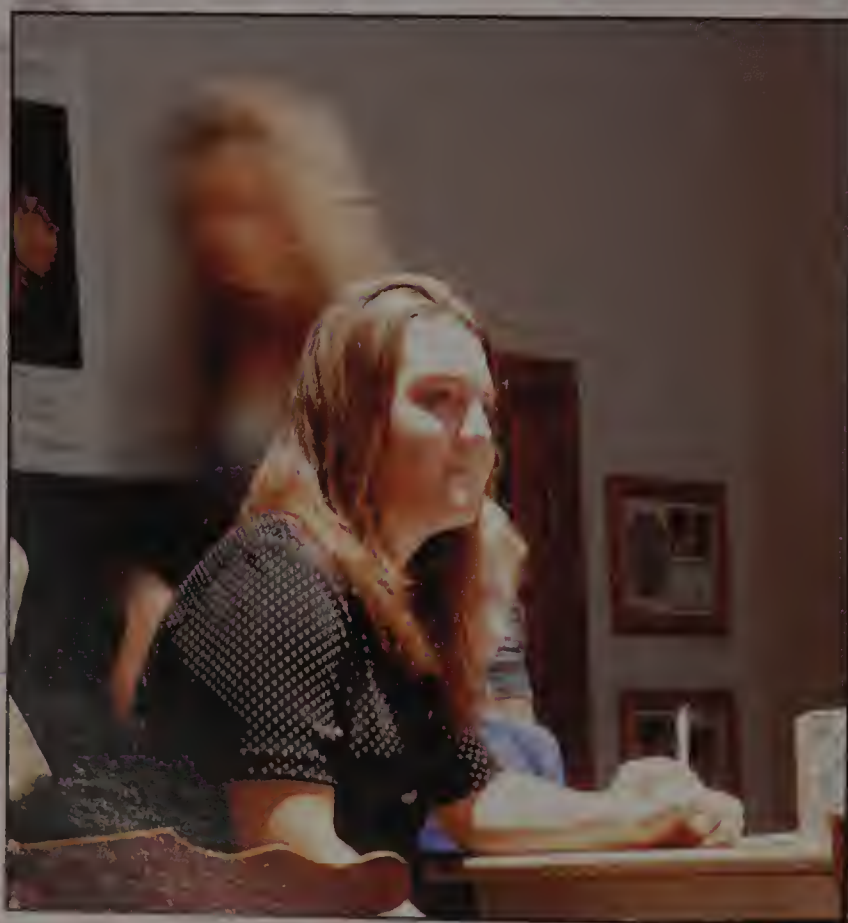

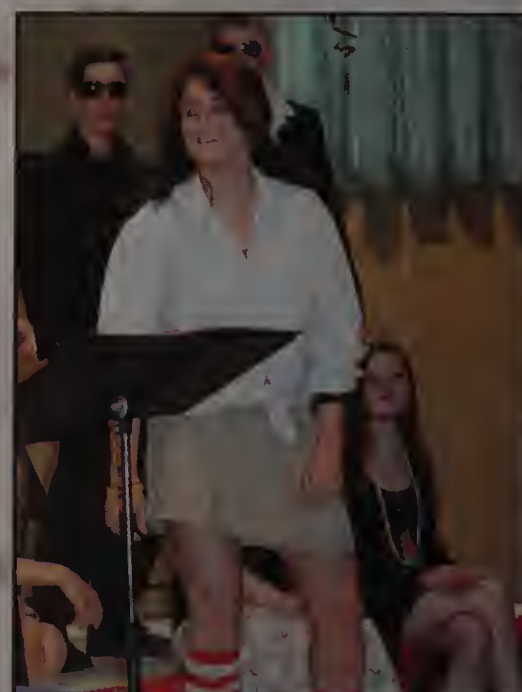

Tim Sweeney, Mike Daly and Chris Bopp break some hearts (and some rules) with their special dance number; Dan Nelligan puts some feeling into his music; April Stuart leads the "chick band" in a rendition of "99 Red Balloons."

Performing Arts

It was a busy year for Sacred Heart's Performing Arts Department as the school welcomed the addition of a black box theatre in Room 99. Director Mark McNeil made the most of the new space, which hosted numerous productions during its inaugural season. The main stage was not forgotten, however, as members of the Intermediate School launched a fall production of "With Their Eyes," a tribute to the victims and heroes of September 11, 2001. Downstairs, drama took stage, with productions of "Talley's Folly," "Pump Boys and Dinettes" (which also toured locally), "12 Angry Women," and "Always, Patsy Cline." The students' theatrical talents also worked their way into the lower gymnasium, where an inspired selection of pieces from the hit musical "Grease" provided the perfect backdrop for the senior/parent dinner.

Clockwise (opposite page); the cast of "12 Angry Women" pauses after their command performance; April Stuart interprets the classic "Beauty School Dropout" from "Grease;" Justin Iacovino looks for an exit as Stephanie Perry serenades him during the senior/parent dinner; Kelsey Hughes portrays one of the "12 Angry Women."

Activities

SADD

It seemed SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions) was everywhere this past year. Under the guidance of Mrs. Karen Horan, and with the help of many students, the group offered up a wide variety of events and presentations. From tubing trips and dance lessons to school gatherings focused on making the best decisions, SADD kept it fun and topical throughout the year.

Clockwise from upper left: Jason Evert and his "date" (Josh Yetman) speak about abstinence; Mrs. Karen Horan leads SADD members in discussion; SADD snow tubers take to the hills; Bill Phillips and Shawna Marie Fanning discuss the effects of alcohol; David Muir, Courtney Abdou and Nicholas Frazier lead the way in a ballroom dancing workshop sponsored by SADD.

Spring Chorus Show

If the best way to greet spring is with a song, then Sacred Heart offered the new season a grand "hello" in 2006. Students from the Intermediate School and Upper School choruses gathered on stage for a memorable performance this past year under the leadership of Ms. Donna Bachman.

Activities

Upper School

It was fun in the sun this past June as underclassmen took to the fields outside of Sacred Heart to enjoy a host of activities. Whether you were dropping a faculty member (or a classmate) in the dunk tank, trying a hand at big glove boxing or making the most of a tug-o-war battle between the classes, you could

Field Day

feel summer in the air as students made the most of rare sunny spring day. There were many cameras on hand to capture the special moments (including a pie eating contest that many participants would likely rather forget), so we share with you some of the truly special times of Field Day 2006.

Previous page: Clockwise from upper left: The freshmen fight the good fight, but end up losing to the sophomores in a tug-of-war; Cori-Rose Hofgarten and Teresa Vercollone take in the sights of field day; Ali Townshend and Augusta Moore reserve the right to do nothing; David West celebrates being with Catherine Buchholz, Emily Runey, Ari Eisenstein and Melissa Roberts; Emily Winchell gets caught in a water balloon; heads up: Danielle Ohrenberger sends the soccer ball flying.

This page: Clockwise from upper left: Mr. Jon Olson takes a dip in the dunk tank after goading on a crowd of students; Jared Valanzola is ready to rumble; Melissa Carson tries to enjoy some pie; Patrick Prendergast takes a breather in between bites of pie; it's girls versus boys in the tug-of-war battle.

Worship

Religion is more than a class at Sacred Heart; it is part and parcel of the school's mission and raison d'être. The school gathers together on a regular basis to celebrate Mass and to enjoy a sense of community that is unique to the school. Students and faculty alike participate in the celebration, with Peer Ministers and members of Cross Sections leading the charge.

Clockwise from top left: Members of the choir share the gift of song during a service; the Peer Ministers, under the guidance of Mrs. Elin Slavin, enter the auditorium during a Mass in June; Cross Sections serenades the worshippers; Ms. Jessica Vaitkus, who leads Cross Sections, backs her singers on piano; Fr. Chris Fahey encourages students to participate in the service; Ben Burke gets the message, up close and personal, during a December Mass.

Retreats

Each year, Mrs. Elin Slavin and members of her Peer Ministry class provide students with an opportunity to strengthen their faith as well as their community. Class-wide retreats offer a unique time to bring us closer and to help us focus on our mission as a Catholic school. This year was no exception.

Clockwise from above: Seniors gather in the SAC to sign a banner that was placed in their time capsule; freshmen Diana Cybulska, Corrine Lemieux and Katie Emmett enjoy a quiet moment on the lawn; this group of juniors is really getting into untying their human knot; seniors truly enjoy the camaraderie afforded by their time together.

Intermediate School Field Day

Students from the Intermediate School took to the fields behind Sacred Heart to wrap up their academic year with a bit of fun in the sun. Students enjoyed rousing games of softball, baseball, tug-of-war and water balloon relays, as well as a barbeque and some visits to the ice cream truck.

Clockwise from above: Julia Dwyer hits a solid homer right at the camera; this group of students is ready to enjoy some bench time; water balloons were flying (and exploding) with alarming regularity: Aaron Smith gets ready to swing; all together now: this group of boys is pulling for a victory.

Justin Iacovino

Dear Justin,
These lyrics to this special song are so true of the love and pride we feel for you.

“Child of mine you are the sweetest song and the greatest gift I will ever know. Love’s lasting light shines out from deep within this father’s heart as I watch you grow. Child of mine you are the break of dawn and the brightest star I will ever know. Love’s lasting light comes shining on and on from this mother’s heart as I watch you grow. There is a road and the road is all your own, but we are here and you need not walk alone. To face, not fear each coming new unknown is the way to lift your wings. Child of mine you have the hands that will open up the doors. You have the hopes this world is waiting for. You are my own, but you are so much more, you are tomorrow on the wing, child of mine.”

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Justin,
Awesome job,

Kyle and Jeremy

Sarah Sibley

Congratulations!!!

You've made the most of your "lifer" experience, from Sacred Heart pre-primary to high school. We are so proud of who you are – the choices you have made and what you have accomplished. We love you and will always be here for you. Your future is yours to make. We wish you as much happiness in your life as you have brought to ours.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations! You made it. I never had any doubts (no really, I didn't). Keep with you the experiences and friends you've had at the Heart and growing up as you move on to conquer bigger peaks. You've worked hard and I know you'll achieve whatever you set your mind to. I'm always here to lend a hand in anything your future brings.

Love, Reed

Nicole Valanzola

Dear Nicole,
I cannot believe that you are about to graduate from high school. It seems like such a short time ago that you were my little girl. I am so proud of you, the choices you have made, and all of your accomplishments. You are a beautiful, intelligent, funny, witty, sensitive and hardworking young woman, and you have the world at your feet right now. You possess inside of you all the tools that you will need to do or be anything that you want. As this chapter in our lives comes to an end, I am at once sad and yet at the same time very excited to see where you go from here. Please always know that I love you very much and will always be here to encourage and support you.

All my love always,
Mom

Nick,
Where did the years go, from my little girl to such a fine young lady? Continue to remain strong, positive and confident, and you will achieve great things. I am very, very proud of you.

Love,
Dad

Dear Nicole,
Congratulations for all your achievements. We are very proud of you and wish you continued success in the pursuit of all your dreams.

Love,
Nana and Papa

Danielle Beck

You are a

Reba,

You are a light and inspiration in my life! Congratulations on all you have accomplished so far. Your future is bright.

Love, Mom

Reba,

With all the world resources one would need to help describe what I would want in a daughter, it wouldn't be enough. Even now with each passing day I find myself reflecting on something you have done or said, and I can only say there are no words to describe you, for you are truly “one of a kind.”

Love, Papa

Reba,

I want to start by saying: You have the opportunity to change the world. Don't let any opportunities pass you by. Your life limits are endless as is your personality. I'm so proud of you.

Love, Dan

Beb,

I am proud to be your sister. You have achieved so much. I can only wait to see what you will conquer next.

I love you, Emmy

Marissa Delorey

Marissa,

Congratulations on your graduation. You have worked hard and accomplished so much. We couldn't be prouder of the person you have become. You are kind, generous, intelligent and talented in so many ways and have brought us more happiness than you can ever know. Thank you for being such a great daughter and sister. Good luck Rissaroo, we love you and know that you will go far.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Stevie

Sarah Lennox

It's hard to believe 18 years have gone by. You'll be going to college to become a teacher. You have brought so much love and laughter into the family. Never lose your sense of humor. Reach for the stars and don't ever lose sight of your goals.

You will be a great teacher!

We love you,

Mom, Dad, Joseph and Michelle

Krista Keller

Krissy,

You will always be our little 'Boodgy,' a little individual who moves through life at her own pace, seeing things a little differently than most people do. You have always brought us such love, joy and laughter. Be your best in college and do not change the passionate, determined, beautiful young woman that you've become. Though you can always do better, you should be proud of your accomplishments. Remember, things won are done; joy's soul lies in the doing.

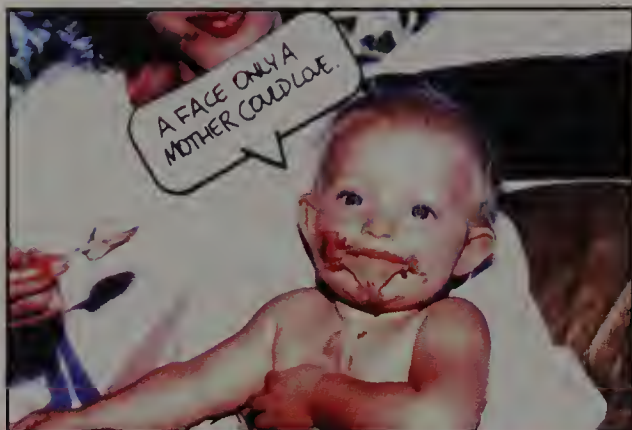

We love you bunches and you will always be our baby.

Mom, Dad and Mylee

Stephanie Nessralla

From the day you were born

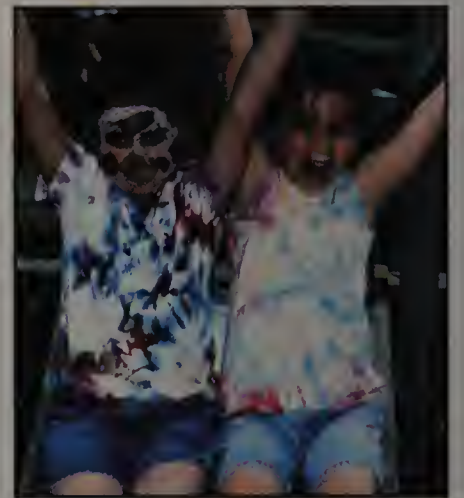

you captivated us...

As you've grown you have developed your own sense of what's good and sometimes made it look tempting...

You have made lifelong friends and brought them into our lives forever...

Well, maybe some of the friends you have made have been yours

and yours alone...

But, no matter where you go, what you do,
who you meet, or how much you grow

you will always be in our hearts.

Steph,

A good life can take a lifetime to build, guard it with all you have. A great life is measured by how well you serve others. So far, you are on the right path. Protect it with all you have.

Love, Dad

Steph,

Remember, if success is not on your own terms, if it looks good to others, but doesn't feel right in your own heart, it isn't success at all.

Be yourself always.

Love, Mom

Steph,

I am so proud of you. Mostly I am proud of what a beautiful, remarkable young woman you are. You are an inspiration to me. I admire you and think that you are truly extraordinary.

Love, Sian

Steph,

Try things out in life and see what fits you best. I have no doubt that you will succeed in all that you do. You are truly and genuinely a great person. Let's always laugh together.

Love, Sam

Boog,

An "angel" once said, "Today for you; Tomorrow for me." Steph, you light my candle.

Love, Shelby

Steph,

Words can't describe how proud I am of you. You have already done so much and I know that this is just the beginning of what great things you will do in life. I am honored to be your new brother.

Love, Jimmy

Megan Phelps

To our remarkable daughter, Megan. We've watched you grow from a feisty young girl to a feisty almost-young-adult. You've touched our hearts and brought joy and warmth to our souls. Your presence has helped sustain our belief that, indeed, God is in His heaven and all's right with the world!!

Your proud parents,
Donald and April and brother Nicholas

Senior

Each year, the senior class gathers in the auditorium the Wednesday before graduation to enjoy a morning of recognition and a stroll down memory lane. This past year, seniors were noted for their many contributions to

Sacred Heart. Dozens of awards were given for academic excellence in a host of different categories. The awards ceremony was followed by one of the most anticipated of all traditions, the senior slide show. Assembled Clockwise from upper left: Seniors enjoy a baby picture of Matt McDonnell during the senior slide show; Catalina Reed accepts Snoopy, the class mascot, from freshman Chandler Smith; Dan Kelley gives Mrs. Karen Horan a hug during the SADD awards; this group of senior girls enjoys the early moments of the slide show; Jamie Blangiardo, Chris Gerhard and Justin Iacovino were among the first seniors to take to the stage; seniors sign a memory banner after the awards ceremony.

Awards

by junior Alison Andersen, this past year's slide show provided a perfect blend of the past and present, with baby pictures that ranged from cute to downright goofy. The same could be said of many of the senior portraits, taken by Mrs. Evelyn Dunbar on the grounds of Sacred Heart. Seniors then adjourned to the front lawn where they enjoyed pizza, salad and cake provided by the Alumni Association.

Clockwise from upper left: Nicole Valanzola and Amanda Sullivan enter the auditorium; freshman officers Rebecca Golden, Mary Vercollone and Alex Kang display their gift to the senior class: a box of crayons; Aaron Richardson puts those crayons to good use; Liz Mullins and Danielle Beck enjoy some pizza; the day was damp, but spirits were bright, as seniors prepared to march into the auditorium for the slide show and awards ceremony.

The Senior

Seniors took a break from their many graduation rehearsals and awards ceremonies to honor themselves a week before graduating. The annual Senior Superlatives, organized by class moderator Ms. Meredith Costa, began with a performance by the Sacred Heart Performing Arts Department of selections from the musical Grease, with a few creative liberties that made the show a Sacred Heart event. The performances were augmented Clockwise from upper left: seniors dance with their parents; Reba Kasmarek and Chris Bopp serve as hosts; a rainbow appears over the lawn of Sacred Heart as seniors prepare for the superlative ceremony; Reba Kasmarek offers up a tune; Jeff Balzarini provides the bass line.

Superlatives

by a slide show and a delicious dinner, as well as a bit of dancing between students and their parents. The crowd then moved upstairs to the auditorium for an evening of laughs, as hosts Reba Kasmarek and Chris Bopp kept things moving. The evening also featured a handful of musical numbers by Reba (The Times They Are A-Changin') and a band composed of Chris, Justin Iacovino, Jeff Balzarini and Jack Dennison.

From top: Laura Spaulding and Matt Copeland celebrate their "Best Friends" win; the "Cutest" Christine Kang and Chris Bopp smile for the camera; Jon Schreiber and Toni Gomes are both winners of "Most Athletic." Right: John Michael Phillips and Kim Babicz share a hug as "Cutest Couple."

"Always remember to raise your head high and stand proud, for you are a graduate of Sacred Heart High School."

Terri Walsh
Parent

"The stars remind us to hold our course and our aim, or inspire us to seek that which is unattainable."

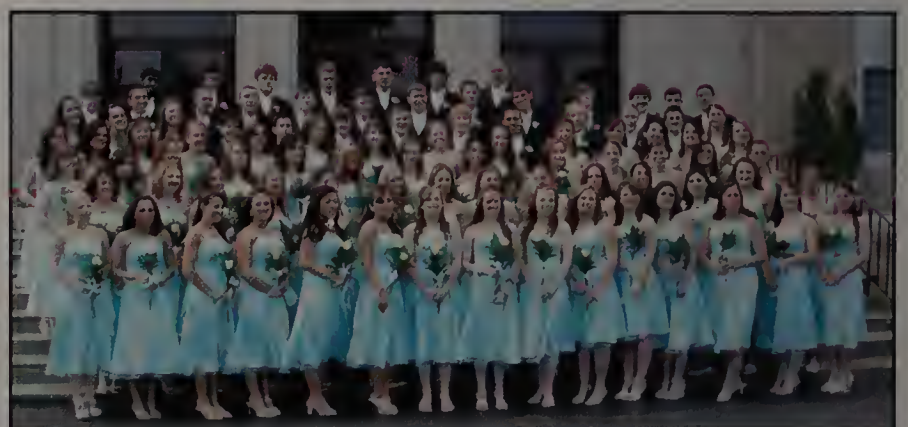

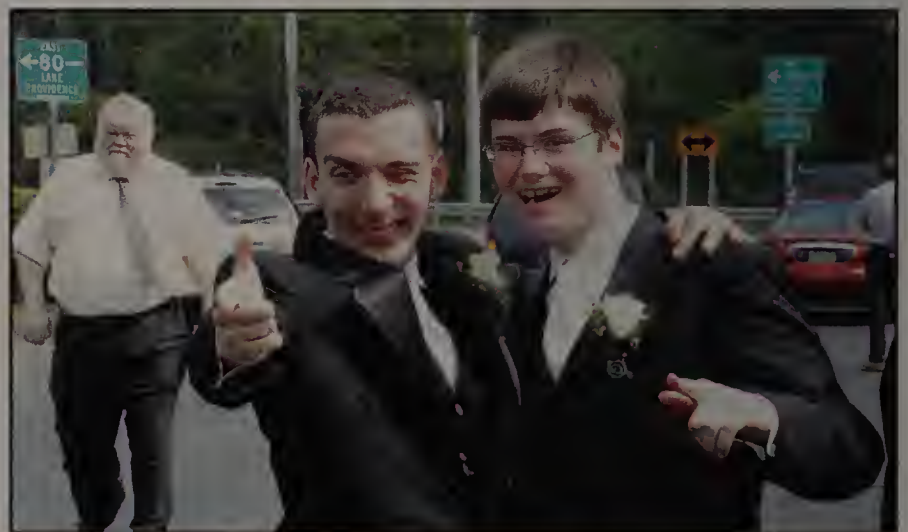

Christine Kang
Salutatorian

"There has never been a finer group of young ladies and gentlemen on this stage."

Mr. John Enos
Principal

From top to bottom: Mrs. Susan Gallitano and Mackenzie Milton lead the parade of seniors; Tristan Pearson and Matt Copeland mug for the camera; the Class of 2006 gathers for the last time as Sacred Heart High School students.

Gotcha!

They say a picture is worth a thousand words, but there are some pictures that seem to be worth a whole lot more than that. We therefore present for your enjoyment the following images from the past year. Please feel free to assign your own words, however many, to suit the captured moment.

Gotcha!

The Staff of the Corric wishes to thank the following individuals for their photographic contributions to this year's edition: Courtney Abdou, Alison Andersen, Mark Bridge, Joe Chapin, Ms. Meredith Costa, Dan Kelley, Sr. Nivard Kohout, Mr. Joe Masi and a very special thank you to Mr. Walter Lucier.
